

Raynor Hires Product Manager

In November, Raynor announced the hiring of Andy Walls as a product manager, responsible for new product development, pricing, and product promotion.

He brings several years of product management experience and was most recently employed at Plews & Edlmann. There, he was senior category manager and previously served as senior product manager and product analyst. ■

Walls

Garaga Expands Presence in USA

In November, Garaga announced the addition of the company's third sales manager working in the U.S. José Berrios is territory sales manager for several northeastern U.S. states.

Berrios speaks Spanish fluently and has worked in the door industry for 18 years. He is a technical school graduate and has experience in management, installation, service, and sales. ■

Berrios

Arrow Tru-Line Hires New Estimator

In November, Arrow Tru-Line announced the promotion of Curtis Fether to estimator at its Archbold, Ohio, facility. In his new role, Fether will serve as the liaison between customers and manufacturing, handling customer request for quotes and assisting in pricing.

With ATL for 12 years, Fether has seven years of manufacturing experience and a bachelor's degree in business. ■

Fether

Quiet. Durable. Strong. Garage Door Operation Simplified

DC Motor Travels Along a Stationary Chain with Door
No Noise, No Vibration, No Maintenance

Only One Moving Part
Lifetime Warranty

 Made in Germany

SOMMER

Direct Drive Technology
www.sommer-usa.com