

Linear Names New President

In April, Linear announced that it had named Michael O'Neal as its new president, while Dan Stottlemire, Linear's president since 2005, was named vice chairman of the Linear Group.

O'Neal

O'Neal came to Linear from Gibson Guitar, where he served as president of North American operations. O'Neal also served as CEO of several high-tech electronics corporations such as Philips Accessories and Peripherals, Gemini Industries, and others.

He has also been a management consultant to governments, businesses, and not-for-profit organizations. Earlier in his career, O'Neal was a chief of staff and special assistant to the Governor of New Jersey. He holds B.A. and M.A. degrees in political science from The State University of New Jersey. ■

Amarr Promotes East to Vice President

In April, Amarr Garage Doors announced that Tony East had been promoted to vice president of operations, overseeing Amarr's 70 Door Centers.

East joined Amarr in 1994 as a product engineer. He later served as director of applications engineering, director of manufacturing in Mocksville, N.C., and as a regional director. East earned a B.S. degree in engineering from the University of North Carolina and an M.B.A. degree from Wake Forest University.

Amarr also promoted Danny Joyner to manager of the company's Mocksville manufacturing facility, a role formerly held by East. Joyner previously served as manager of applications engineering at Amarr. ■

East

Hörmann Flexon Announces New President

On May 16, Mark Haley became the new president at Hörmann Flexon, where he now oversees manufacturing, sales, and marketing of high-speed doors in the U.S.

Born in England, Haley studied mechanical engineering at the University of Glasgow and earned a doctorate. In the U.S. since 1994, he has worked with several U.S.-based subsidiaries of Alfred Kärcher.

The responsibilities of Peter Burnham, vice president of sales, Mark Permigiani, vice president of manufacturing, and Jacques Op't Root, vice president of business integration, remain unchanged. ■

Haley

Boito

Miller Edge Names Western Regional Rep

In April, Miller Edge announced that Darrell Boito had been promoted to Western Region Inside Sales Rep.

With Miller Edge for four years, Boito most recently served as plant supervisor in Tempe. Boito is now responsible for providing inside sales and customer service support to customers in the western U.S. and Canada region. ■

C.H.I. Presents Achievement Award

In February, C.H.I. Overhead Doors announced that George Artenstein had received an Award of Achievement for his development efforts in C.H.I.'s western region.

Artenstein has been in the door industry for several years and currently serves as C.H.I.'s Regional Sales Manager for the West Coast. ■

Artenstein